

ORANGE SCHOOLS FOUNDATION

We are a nonprofit, qualified charitable organization that raises money to fund projects in Orange City School District that might not otherwise be possible. Our mission is to fund ideas that support teacher creativity and encourage student innovation throughout the district that help position the schools as leaders in public education. We receive dozens of grant requests yearly for initiatives that inspire creativity and exploration among our student-base, and would not otherwise be covered by the school's budget. The foundation also manages 28 designated funds.

The foundation's board of directors includes OCSD Superintendent Dr. Lynn Campbell, two members of the Board of Education, and several teachers and staff from the early childhood, elementary, middle and high school buildings.

Funding Inspiration At Orange Schools

Join the hundreds of organizations who have supported the annual fundraiser for Orange City School District presented by Orange Schools Foundation. The year's Wild for Orange is staying in our district as we take this premier fundraiser to our neighbor Pinstripes.

Why Donate

Wild for Orange is the foundation's primary fundraiser. Proceeds are used to underwrite grants submitted by teachers and staff for projects in the district that might not otherwise be possible. Our goal is to assist in decreasing the funding gap needed to support infrastructure, programming and a curriculum that enables our students to be ready in an increasingly competitive, global world.

How We Use Your Auction Donation

The silent auction is a vital component of the event. Last year 240 packages raised more than $25,000 — enough money to underwrite five grants! Your donation will be assigned a catalogue number and be displayed at the event. In addition, your item will appear on our auction website where people can bid using a mobile device beginning a few days prior to the event. Bidders do not need to be at the event to participate.

Mail check payable to Orange Schools Foundation to: 32000 Chagrin Boulevard, Pepper Pike, OH 44124

Credit card payment accepted through PayPal at: www.OrangeSchoolsFoundation.org
